Remembering Lealand

Lealand Eugene Stewart (named after Bishop Eugene Benjamin Stewart, his paternal grandfather) was born on February 19, 1963, in Oakland, California to Elder Arthur L. Stewart and Mother Charlene E. Stewart.

Lealand was the fourth of five children and was known as a caring "gentle giant," who loved learning specifically about plants and animals. His interest in nature was supported by his reading and collections of the National Geographic Magazines. Lealand and his older brother, Richard's interest in science encouraged their younger brother, Jeffery, to pursue a degree and career in science.

Lealand enjoyed a good debate and was often philosophical and unique about his beliefs. He seldom shrank from expressing his opinions. He had many friends and was known to come to the defense and take the side of those in need. He loved to cook and had a talent for combining assorted flavors and seasonings. He participated in middle, junior and high school sports and music activities. He played the trumpet in junior high and high school.

Lealand graduated from Skyline High School in June of 1981 where he was a "tough" linebacker on the football team. Lealand graduated from Merritt College in May of 1997 with an Associates Degree in Natural Science.

Lealand retired from the State of California in 2020 after over 20 years of service in various departments including the State Compensation Insurance Fund and the Department of General Services.

After his retirement Lealand launched his own carpet cleaning service partially inspired by his work with his maternal grandfather, Elder Richard Wilson, who owned the Westside Janitorial Service.

Lealand is survived and greatly missed by: his father and mother Elder Arthur L. Stewart & Mother Charlene E. Stewart; siblings Cheryl Stewart, Richard Stewart and wife Wanda Stewart, Joan Stewart and husband Kent Johnson, Jeffery Stewart and wife, Senait Stewart, ,Uncle Billy Wilson and wife LaVonne Wilson, Aunt Ruth Wilson and Aunt Barbara Powell and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
